Programme
International Conference
Spanning and Spinning the Globe
Moscow 21-23 May 2015

German Historical Institute
Higher School of Economics
Address: ul. Myasnitskaya 9/11, Conference hall 518
Conference languages: English, Russian

Thursday, 21 May

18:30 – 19:00  Registration
19:00 - 23:00  OPENING EVENING

19:00 – 19:15  Welcome speech Michail Boitsov (Professor of History, Deputy Dean for Research: Faculty of Humanities HSE)
Welcome speech Robert Edelman (Professor of History, University of California, San Diego)
Welcome speech Nikolaus Katzer (Professor of History, Director, GHI Moscow)

19:15 – 19:50  Cold War Sport at the Cinema I
Tony Shaw (University of Hertfordshire, UK)
Denise Youngblood (University of Vermont)

19:50 – 20:10  Coffee break

20:10 – 20:45  Cold War Sport at the Cinema II
Tony Shaw (University of Hertfordshire, UK)
Denise Youngblood (University of Vermont)

20:45 – 21:15  Discussion
21:15 – 23:00  Reception

Friday, 22 May

9:00 - 11:00  1. Rethinking Soviet Sport
Chair: Nikolaus Katzer (Director, GHI Moscow)
Sylvain Dufraisse (Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne): The Professionalization of the Soviet Athlete
Sergey Bondarenko (Staff member, Memorial Museum Moscow): Football in the Soviet literature
Alexander Ananyev (University Tübingen): Making Fun of Soviet Sport – Cartoons of the 1980s
Discussant: Mikhail Prozumenshikov (Deputy Director, Russian State Archive of Contemporary History)

11:00 – 11:30  Coffee break

11:30 - 13:30  2. Far and Away? China and Asia
Chair: Christian Ostermann (Director of the History and Public Policy Program, Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars, Washington)
Simon Creak (University of Melbourne): New regional order: Sport and the Cold War in Thailand and Southeast Asia
Andrew Morris (California Polytechnic State University): ‘The Communist Bandits Have Been Repudiated’: Cold War-Era Sport in Taiwan
Amanda Shuman (UC Santa Cruz): The Politics of Socialist Athletics in the early PRC
Presentation per Skype
Discussant: Sergey Radchenko (Reader, Department of International Politics, University of Aberystwyth)

13:30 – 15:00  Lunch

15:00 – 15:30  Presentation Conference Website
Laura Deal (Woodrow Wilson Center)

15:30 – 17:30  3. Europe Unsettled
Chair: Christopher Young (Professor of Modern and Medieval German Studies, University of Cambridge)
Lindsay Sarah Krasnoff (Historian, US State Department): France’s Third Way: Combatting the Cold War Basketball Threats
Fabian Archambault (University of Limoges): Politics and football in post-World War II Italy
Pascal Charitas (UFR STAPS, Paris): French Colonial Policy in African Sports
Discussant: Christian Ostermann (Director of the History and Public Policy Program, Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars, Washington)

Saturday, 23 May

9:00 - 11:00  4. Views of The Other
Chair: Bob Edelman (Professor of History, University of California, San Diego)
Vladimir Titorenko (former editor of Sportexpress and writer for Sovetskii sport): Working for Sovetskii Sport
Vladimir Geskin (former Deputy Director Sportexpress, Russia): Staying at Home – LA 1984 from Estonia
Travis Vogan (University of Iowa): ABC’s Wide World of Sports – the American Gaze presentation per skype
Discussant: Anke Hilbrenner (Professor of History, University of Bremen)

11:00 – 11:30  Coffee break

11:30 – 13:30  5. The People’s Sport – Soccer
Chair: Mikhail Prozumenshikov (Russian State Archive of Contemporary History)
Alan McDougall (Guelph, Canada): “Eulogy to theft”: Berliner FC Dynamo (BFC) and the downfall of East German communism
Erik Scott (Kansas): Fielding Difference: Georgian Footballers and Multiethnic Soviet Soccer in the Cold War
Todd Cleveland (Augustana) – African Footballers in Iberia
Discussant: Irina Bykhovskaya (Chair of Cultural Studies, Russian State Sports University)

13:30 – 14:30  Lunch

14:30 - 16:30  6. The Peoples’ Other Sport – Hockey
Chair: Christopher Young (Professor of Modern and Medieval German Studies, University of Cambridge)
Erica Fraser (Carleton, Ottawa): Domestic Soviet Hockey 1946-1991
John Soares (Notre Dame): Canada, the cold war and the end of amateurism
Discussant: Yuri Slezkine (Professor of Russian and Soviet History, UC Berkeley)
Concluding remarks: Christopher Young (Professor of Modern and Medieval German Studies, University of Cambridge)

Responsible for the conference website
Vince Hunt (Independent Journalist, UK - responsible for filming)
Laura Deal (Woodrow Wilson Center, content)

Translators