

DRAFT PROGRAM for Budapest Conference, October 30-November 1, 2003.

Thursday, October 30.

Participants Arrive.

19:00. Reception and Opening Dinner AT CONFERENCE HOTEL.

Friday, October 31. HUNGARIAN ACADEMY OF SCIENCES, Budapest, V. District, Roosevelt Square 9.

9:00-9:30. Welcome.

9:30-10:45. Panel I.

The Importance of 1956. Chair: Malcolm Byrne. Commentator: Odd Arne Westad.

Sergo Mikoyan, "Anastas Mikoyan's papers on 'De-Stalinization' and Crises Inside the Socialist Bloc."

Peter Vamos, "The Chinese Communist Party's Policy and the 1956 Hungarian Revolution."

L.W. Gluchowski, "Poland, China, and the Sino-Soviet Split, 1956-64."

11:00-12:15. Panel II.

The Sino-Soviet Split. Chair: James Hershberg. Commentator: Vlad Zubok.

Carmen Rijnoveanu, "A Romanian Perspective on the Sino-Soviet Conflict, 1960-68."

Douglas Selvage, "Poland and the Sino-Soviet Rift, 1963-1965."

David Wolff, "Interkit: Warsaw Pact Sinology and the Sino-Soviet Split."

12:30-13:30. Lunch. BM Duna Palota [Danube Palace] V. District, Zrinyi u. 5.

13:45-15:00. Panel III.

East European-Chinese Relations (I). Chair: Csaba Bekes. Commentator: Chen Jian.

Jordan Baev, "Bulgaria and Soviet efforts to Coordinate Soviet Bloc Anti-Maoist Propaganda Campaign, 1960-1975."

Mircea Munteanu, "Countering the Soviets at Every Turn: Romania-Chinese Inter-Party Cooperation, 1966-70."

Wanda Jarzabek, “China through Polish Eyes, 1965-1972.”

15:15-16:30. Panel IV.

East European-Chinese Relations (II). Chair: Christian Ostermann. Commentator: Jordan Baev.

Hope Harrison, “East German-Chinese Relations, 1956-61.”

Peter Vamos, “Hungarian documents on China, 1956-1972.”

Lavinia Betea/ Paul Wingrove, “Dej’s relations with China.”

16:45-18:00. Panel V.

The Warsaw Pact and Asia. Chair: Gregg Brazinsky. Commentator: Hope Harrison.

Petre Opris, “Expansion Attempts of the Warsaw Treaty Organization in the Asian Area.”

Bernd Schaefer, “The Latest Findings of the Parallel History Project.”

Mark Kramer, Harvard, “Sino-Soviet Relations and the Warsaw Pact, 1955-80.”

19:30. Dinner. BM Duan Palota [Danube Palace] V. District, Zrinyi u. 5.

Saturday, November 1.

HUNGARIAN ACADEMY OF SCIENCES, Budapest, V. District, Roosevelt Square 9.

9:30-10:45. Panel VI.

Vietnam (I). Chair: Oldrich Tuma. Commentator: Fred Logevall.

Lorenz Luthi, “The Collapse of Sino-Soviet Party Relations and Its Influence on the Early Vietnam War, 1963-66.”

Csaba Bekes, “Hungarian Mediation during the Vietnam War, 1965-66.”

James Hershberg, “Polish Mediation and the Vietnam War, 1966.”

11:00-12:15. Panel VII.

Vietnam (II). Chair: Odd Arne Westad. Commentator: Lien-Hang Nguyen.

Malgorzata Gnoinska, “Poland and Vietnam, 1963.”

Boris Stanimirov, “Bulgarian Aid to Vietnam, Laos, and Cambodia during the Indochina War, 1963-75.”

Balazs Szalontai, “The International Aspects of North Vietnamese Internal Policies, 1954-69.”

12:30-13:30. Lunch. BM Duna Palota [Danube Palace] V. District, Zrinyi u. 5.

13:45-15:15. Panel VIII.

Korea. Chair: Kathryn Weathersby. Commentator: Gregg Brazinsky.

Ruediger Frank, “Materials on North Korea in the Bauhaus Archive in Dessau.”

Balazs Szalontai, “1956 - A Challenge to the Leader.”

Sergei Radchenko, “North Korea and Soviet/Japanese Rapprochement in the 1960's.”

Bernd Schaefer, “North Korean ‘Adventurism’ and China’s Long Shadow, 1966-72.”

15:30-16:45. Panel IX.

The Cold War Elsewhere in Asia. Chair: Jordan Baev. Commentators: Yvette Chin, Oldrich Tuma.

Ragna Boden, “The Atheistic and the Muslim State—Islam in the Service of Soviet Policy towards Indonesia (1954-64).”

Ljubodrag Dimic and Svetozar Rajak, “Meeting of the Like-Minded: Tito’s first trip to India and Burma.”

Sergey Radchenko, “The Kremlin’s Leash, the Mongolian Nationalism and the Chinese Connection.”

17:00-18:00. Concluding Discussion.

Moderated by Csaba Bekes.

19:30. Dinner. BM Duna Palota [Danube Palace] V. District, Zrinyi u. 5.

Sunday, November 2.

Participants Depart