

Argentina's Social Default

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 30, 2002,

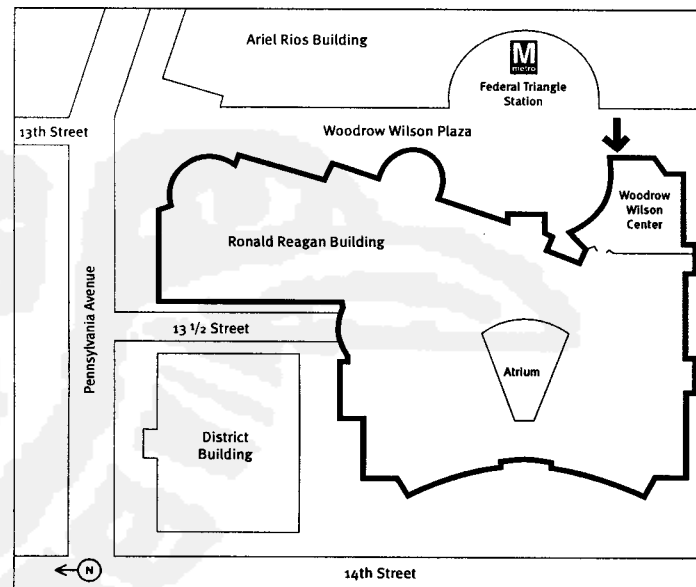

2:00 pm

FIFTH FLOOR CONFERENCE ROOM, WOODROW WILSON CENTER

Argentina's Social Default will provide an opportunity for the policy community in Washington to look beyond Argentina's debt crisis. In a country where poverty and the associated maladies of homelessness, malnutrition, and hunger were once considered minor policy issues, today half the population is below the poverty line. As the social crisis intensifies, public policies addressed to alliviate poverty become crucial.
