

Promoting Democracy and Rights at Work: Making a Difference

Tuesday, September 18, 2007

Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars
6th Floor Board Room
One Woodrow Wilson Plaza
1300 Pennsylvania Ave, Washington DC

|               |  |
|---------------|--|
| 2:50 – 3:00pm | Distribution of material and welcome coffee  |
| 3:00 – 3:05pm | Introduction and objectives  |
| 3:05 – 3:15pm | Opening address: Mr. Kari Tapiola , Executive Director, Standards and Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work Sector, ILO  |
| 3:15 – 3:25pm | Keynote address: Ms. Charlotte M. Ponticelli , Deputy Undersecretary for International Affairs, Bureau of International Labor Affairs, U.S. Department of Labor  |
| 3:25 – 3:40pm | Presentation of the findings of the independent impact report:Prof. Colin Fenwick , University of Melbourne, Australia  |
| 3:40 – 4:10pm | Questions and answers concerning the report  |
| 4:10 – 4:30pm | Panel discussion on the achievements and impact of the ILO projects:> Ms. Mércia Consolação Silva , Researcher, Instituto Observatório Social , Brazil ( invited )> Ms. Helga Ying , Director, Worldwide Government Affairs and Public Policy, Levi Strauss> Ms. Ros Harvey , Better Work Global Programme Manager, ILO |
| 4:30 – 5:00pm | Questions and answers / reflections on the way forward   |
| 5:00 – 5:15pm | Closing remarks  |
| 5:15 – 6:15pm | Reception  |