

"Serving Western Legislatures"

Building a 21st Century Border: Regional Master Plans and Transportation Infrastructure

Tuesday, March 1, 2011

1:30-4:55 p.m.

Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars

Flom Auditorium (sixth floor)

For directions, www.wilsoncenter.org/directions

AGENDA

Tuesday, March 1, 2011

1:30-1:40 p.m. Opening and Welcome

- Andrew Selee, Director, Woodrow Wilson Center Mexico Institute

1:45-2:15 p.m. Opening Keynote Address

- The Hon. Alan Bersin, Commissioner, U.S. Customs and Border Protection (confirmed)

2:20-3:50 p.m. Panel Discussion on Regional Master Plans

Representatives from:

- U.S. Department of State (invited)
- U.S. General Services Administration (invited)
- The Embassy of Mexico in the United States (invited)
- Border Legislative Conference (confirmed)
- Paso del Norte Group (confirmed)

3:55-4:00 p.m. Break

4:05-4:25 p.m. Development-Bank Financing at the U.S.-Mexico Border

- The Hon. Gerónimo Gutiérrez, Managing Director, North American Development Bank (confirmed)

4:30-4:55 p.m. Closing Address

- The Hon. Victor Mendez, Administrator, Federal Highway Administration, U.S. Department of Transportation (confirmed)

This conference is made possible by the generous support of the American people through the United States Agency for International Development (USAID). The contents are the responsibility of the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars and do not necessarily reflect the view of USAID or the United States Government.