Challenges and a Shared Future

The C. Warren Goldring Annual Lecture on Canada-U.S. Relations

DATE: Friday, May 23, 2008
TIME: Luncheon Speech
11:45 am – 1:30 pm
PLACE: Toronto Board of Trade
1 First Canadian Place
Toronto

As chair of the Council of Great Lakes Governors, Governor Jim Doyle will talk about the shared challenges that the United States and Canada face as stewards of the region's economy and environment.

Jim Doyle is Wisconsin's 44th Governor, first elected in 2002 and then re-elected in 2006 with more votes than any candidate for governor in Wisconsin history. Until becoming governor, he served three four-year terms as Wisconsin's Attorney General, distinguishing himself as a national leader in fighting to improve public health and in aggressively prosecuting state polluters.
