

The Woodrow Wilson Center Mexico Institute invites you to attend the latest installment in its Dialogues with Mexico/Diálogos con México speaker series, featuring:

Alejandro Encinas

Leader, Party of the Democratic Revolution,
Chamber of Deputies (lower house), Congress of Mexico, 61st Legislature

Friday, March 5, 2010

9:30-11:00 a.m.

5th Floor Conference Room

Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars

1300 Pennsylvania Ave., NW

For directions, please click here.

ALEJANDRO ENCINAS is the leader of the Party of the Democratic Revolution in the Mexican lower-house Chamber of Deputies. Prior to serving in Congress, he served as Mayor of Mexico City in 2005 and 2006.

This presentation will be in Spanish; translation will be available.

For up-to-date information on Mexican politics and other news, visit wilsoncenter.org/mexicoportal.