

Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars
Mexico Institute

"Serving Western Legislatures"

Please join the Woodrow Wilson Center Mexico Institute, the Border Legislative Conference, and the Council of State Governments-West for a conversation on:

Border Transportation and Infrastructure Coordination

Welcoming Remarks:

Denise Moreno Ducheny, Vice-Chair, Border Legislative Conference

Panel:

Jill Hochman, Director, Interstate and Border Planning, Department of Transportation

Ralph Scalise, Acting Director, Land Ports of Entry Division, General Services Administration

David Pagan, Advisor to the Commissioner, Customs and Border Protection

Enrique Escorza, Minister, Political Affairs Section, Embassy of Mexico

David Olsen, International Trade Specialist, Department of Commerce

Rachel Poynter, Foreign Affairs Officer, Office of Mexican Affairs, Department of State

Moderated by: Eliot Shapleigh, State Senator, State of Texas

Thursday, September 24, 2009

1:30-3:30 p.m.

Fifth Floor Conference Room

Woodrow Wilson Center

Please RSVP to mexico@wilsoncenter.org.

Visit <http://wilsoncenter.org/directions> for directions to the Woodrow Wilson Center.

This conference is made possible by the generous support of the American people through the United States Agency for International Development (USAID). The contents are the responsibility of the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars and do not necessarily reflect the view of USAID or the United States Government.