

USAID
FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

USAID Family Planning and RBF: Current Approaches and Future Opportunities

Beverly Johnston, Senior Policy Advisor
USAID Office of Population and Reproductive Health

Family Planning and Results-Based Financing: Opportunities and Challenges
Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars'
Global Health Initiative, Environmental Change and Security Program, and Africa Program
May 21, 2012

Background

- Long-standing programming to support FP financing
- RBF supports progress on a path towards universal health coverage

Programmatic Support

- Primers and guideline documents
- Supply-side initiatives
- Demand-side initiatives

Legal & Policy Environment

- Voluntarism & informed choice
- Statutes and policies

Collaboration

- Global Health Bureau interest group
- IWG for RBF

Support for HSS

- Office of Health Systems Strengthening
- Maternal health evidence summit

Programming & Learning

- Commodity supply chains
- Research quality of care

Catalyst for Change

- Increase availability & access
- Address financial barriers & equity

Address Challenges

- Client rights and needs
- Getting the compensation right

USAID
FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

THANK YOU