

Kandahar Afghanistan: A View From the Canadian Army

The Canada Institute of the Woodrow Wilson
International Center for Scholars

LGen A.B. Leslie

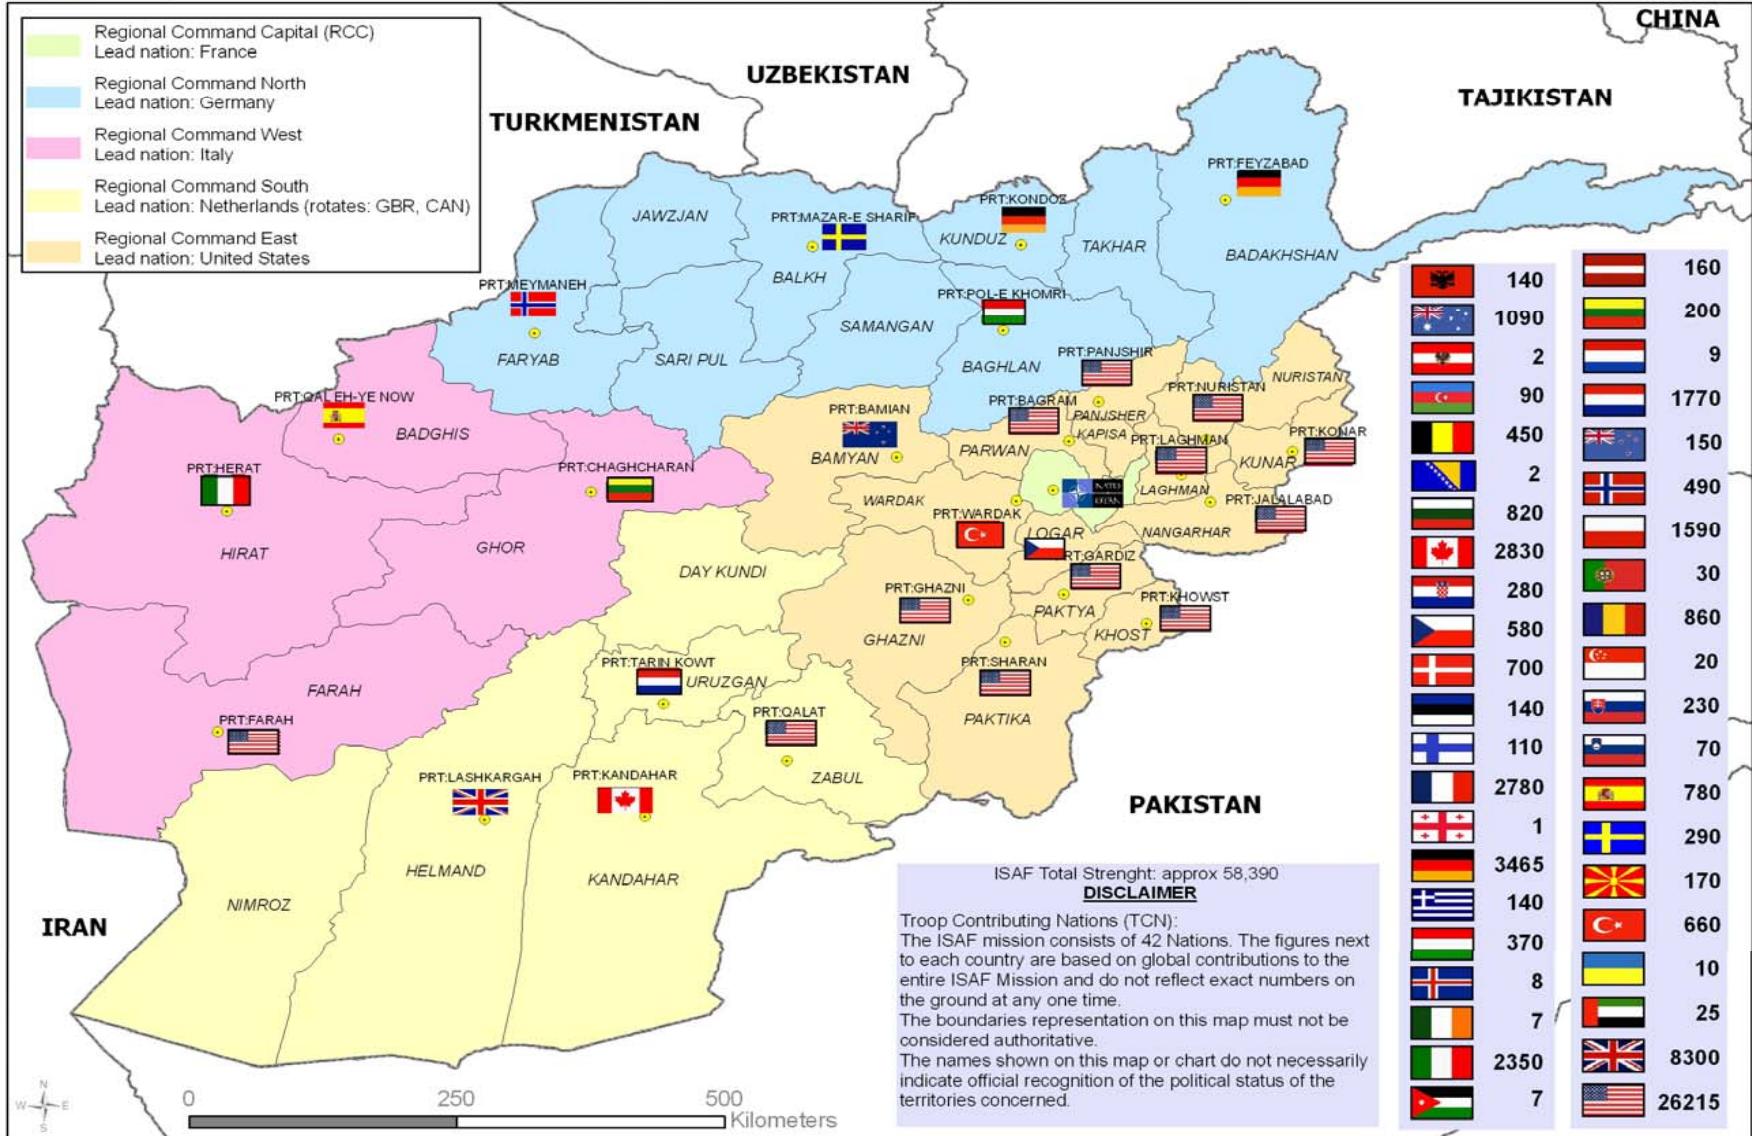

Chief of Land Staff, Canadian Forces

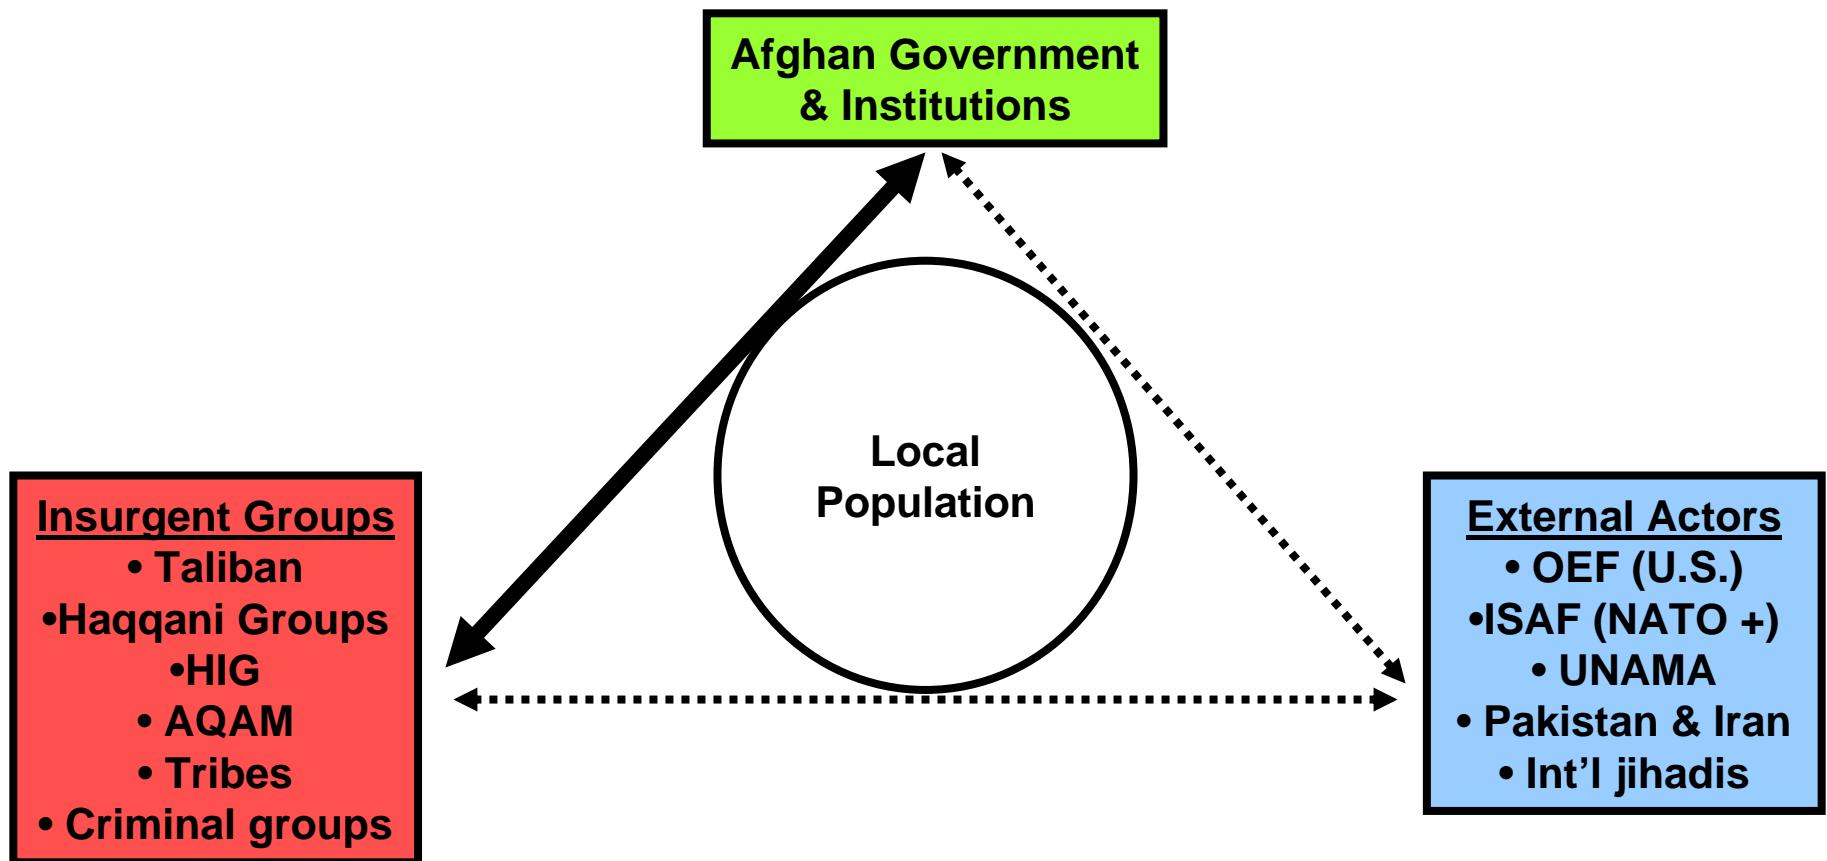

AFGHANISTAN ISAF RC AND PRT LOCATIONS

	Regional Command Capital (RCC)
	Lead nation: France
	Regional Command North
	Lead nation: Germany
	Regional Command West
	Lead nation: Italy
	Regional Command South
	Lead nation: Netherlands (rotates: GBR, CAN)
	Regional Command East
	Lead nation: United States

Afghan Insurgency

Insurgency

An organized movement aimed at the overthrow of a constituted government through use of subversion and armed conflict.

One Army, One Team, One Vision

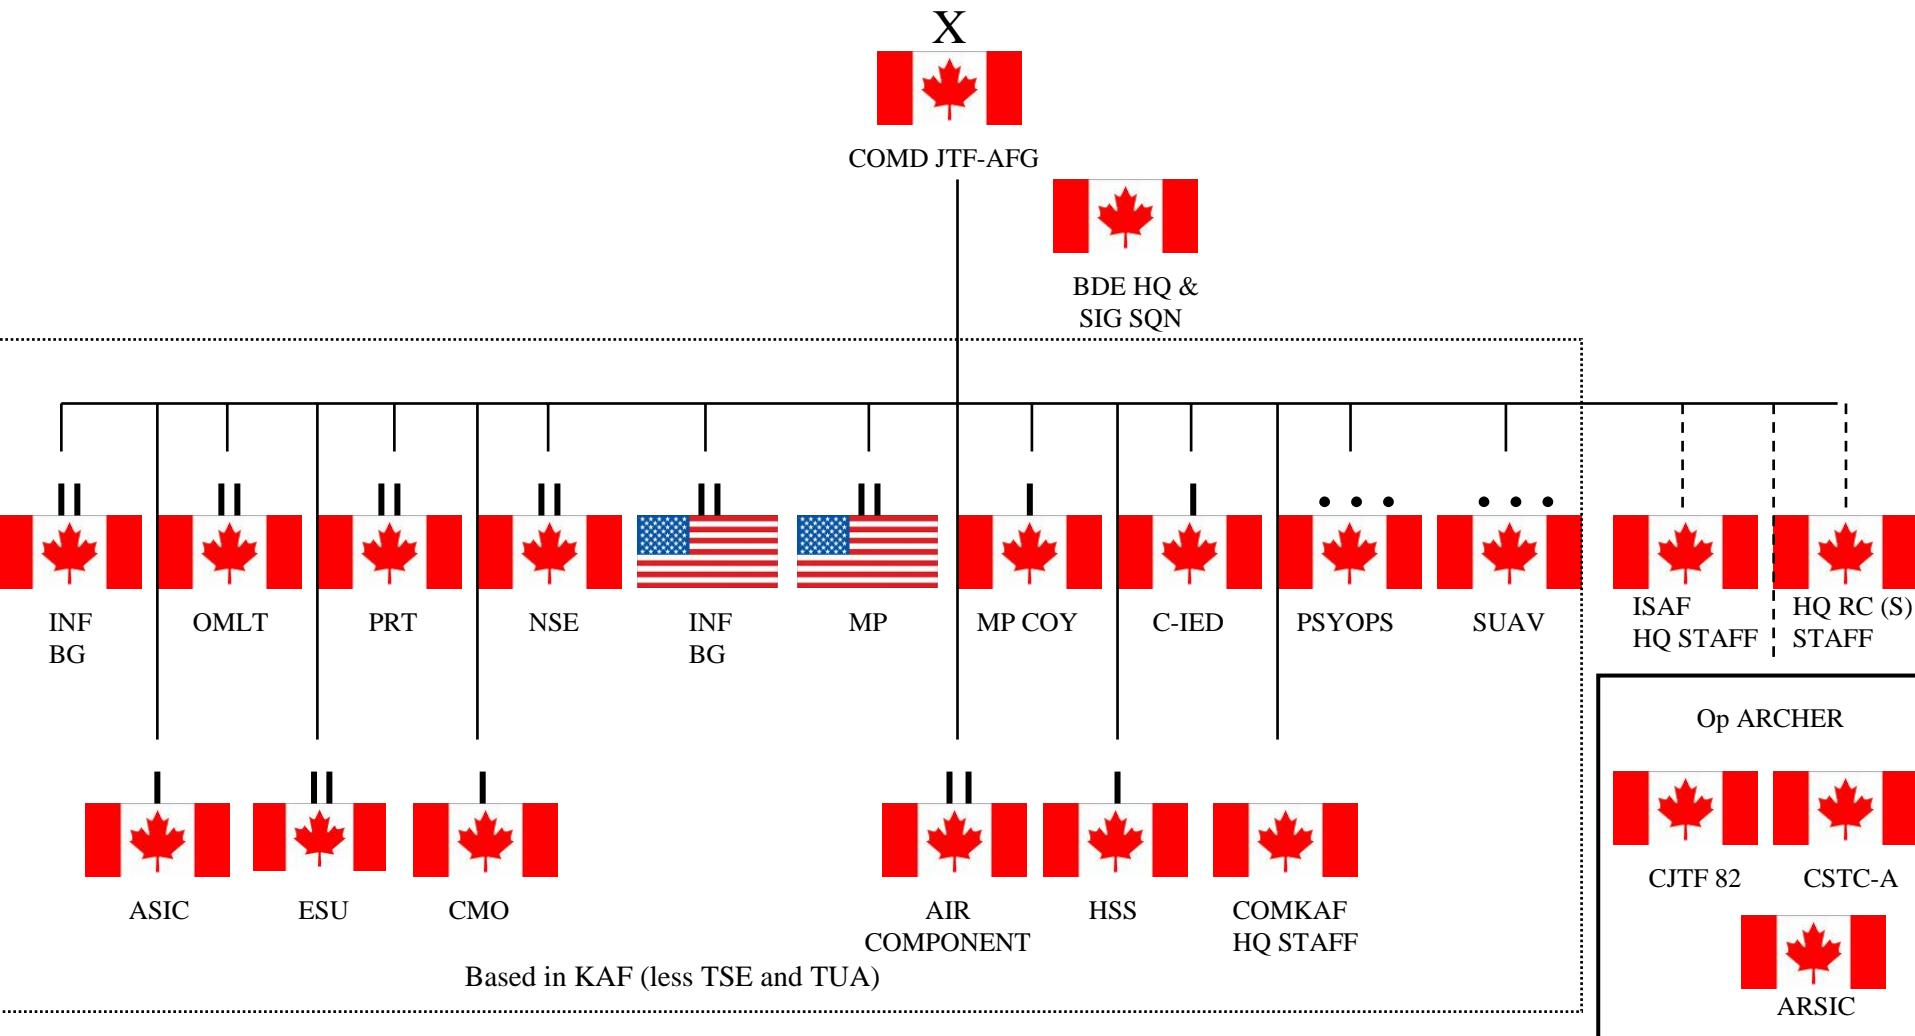

Friendly

Une Armée, une équipe, une vision

JTF-Afg Force Structure

Key Capabilities (1/2)

LAV 3

TLAV

M777

Leopard C2

Coyote

AEV

Leopard 2A6M

RG-31

Key Capabilities (2/2)

HUSKY

SUAV

TUAV

BUFFALO

AHSVS

MUAV

GRIFFON

CHINOOK

Operational Mentor and Liaison Team

- Coach, mentor and assist in training units and leadership of the Afghan National Army
- Provide access to Coalition Forces battle-winning assets to assist in their professional development
- Battlefield integration to complement ANSF tactical capability

Battle Group Operations

- Combat
- Stability Operations
(patrolling, clearance, dominating ground)
- Supporting Governance
(mentoring, key leader engagements)

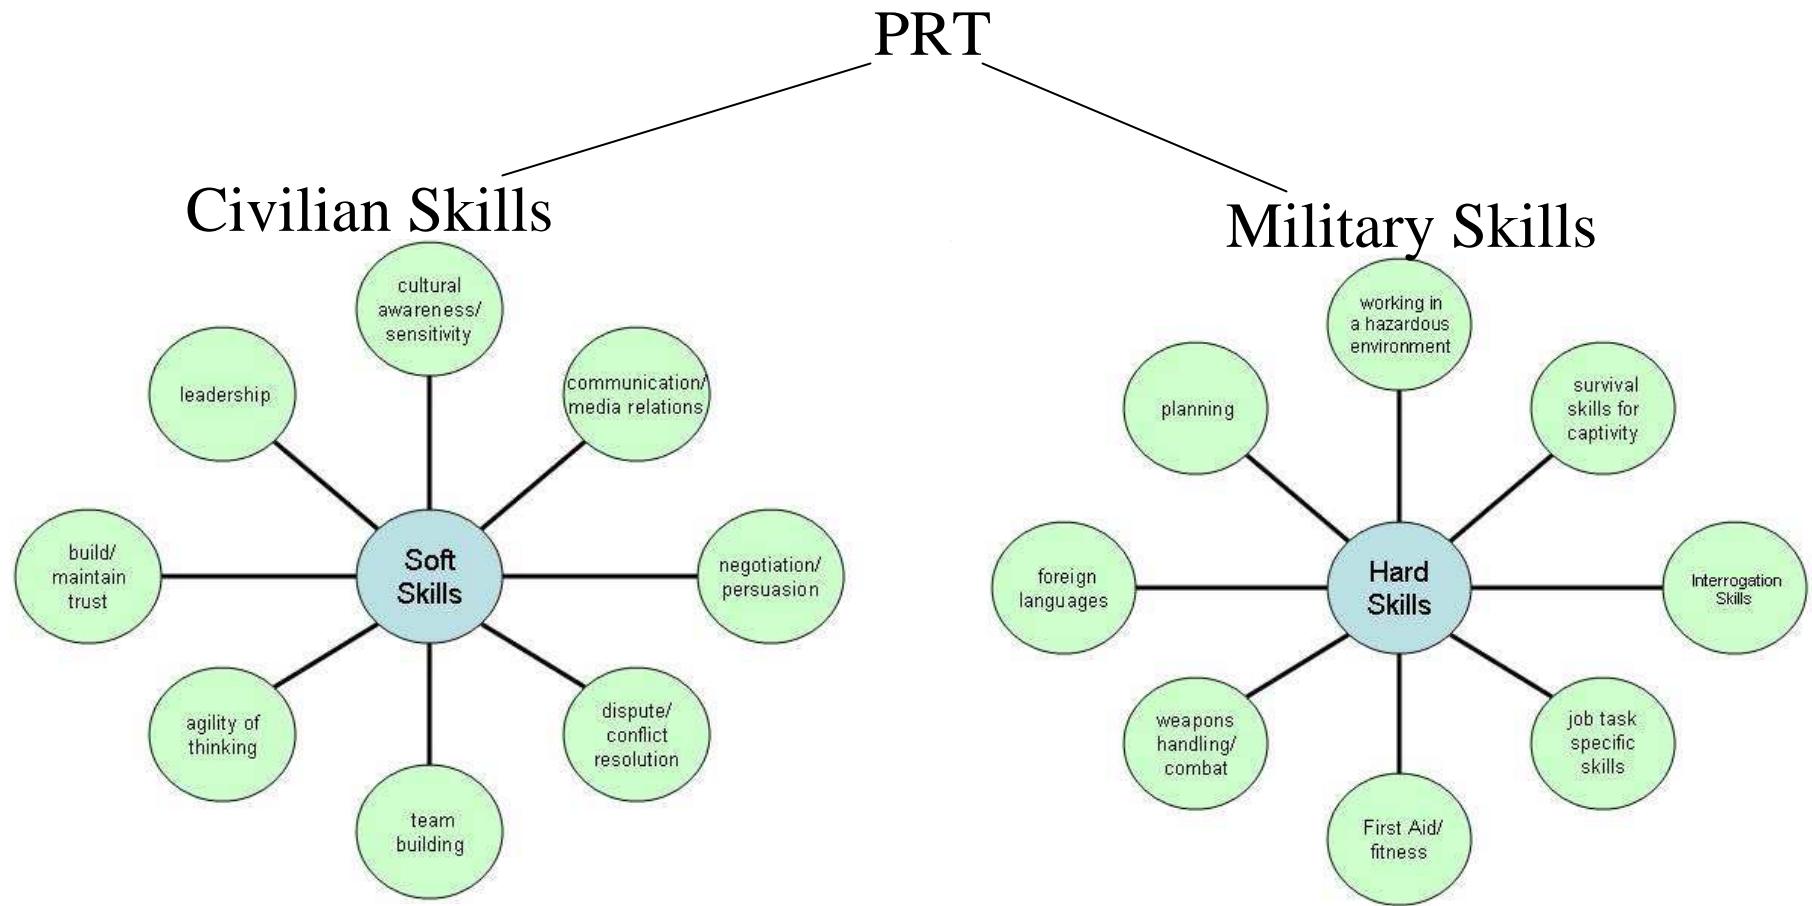

Kandahar Provincial Reconstruction Team

- Key Leader Engagement at Provincial Level
- Strengthening ANP
- Support to Tactical Operations
- Capacity Building
- Development Initiatives

Whole of Government Approach-Combines the Specialties of Civilians and Soldiers

PRT- Civilian Police

- Sergeant Ray Ealdama, from the Greater-Grand Sudbury Police Force, speaks with Afghan National Police (ANP) while conducting a visit to a temporary vehicle checkpoint in Kandahar, Afghanistan. Sgt Ealdama works with the Kandahar Provincial Reconstruction Team (KPRT), part of the Civilian Police contingent who help in the training and development of the ANP in Kandahar, Afghanistan

One Army, One Team, One Vision

Questions?

Une Armée, une équipe, une vision

