

The Latin American Program is pleased to invite you to a conference on:

THE FUNES ADMINISTRATION IN EL SALVADOR: A REVIEW OF THE FIRST YEAR

June 25, 2010

9:00 AM – 1:00 PM

6th Floor Auditorium

Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars 1300 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.

The FMLN's victory in the 2009 presidential elections transformed Salvadoran politics and opened a new chapter in the democratic history of the country. Yet the government of President Mauricio Funes has confronted multiple challenges, including a deep economic crisis, rampant crime and violence, and a divided government. How has the Funes administration performed in its first year in office? Has it been able to meet voters' expectations for change in El Salvador?
