

The Great Lakes St. Lawrence Region: Improving Policy Outcomes through Research and Engagement

April 17, 2014// 9:00 a.m. 12:15 p.m.

Event Time Cues

Part 1: "Public Opinion on Great Lakes Environmental and Energy Policy: A Canada-U.S. Comparison"

David Biette (7:06-7:50)

Director, Wilson Center's Canada Institute

"Opening Remarks"

Carolyn Johns (7:50-12:41)

Associate Professor, Ryerson University

"Opening remarks about the Great Lakes Policy Research Network and speaker introductions"

Barry Rabe (12:52-21:50)

Director, Center for Local, State, and Urban Policy, University of Michigan

Chris Gore (21:55-36:52)

Associate Professor, Ryerson University

Sarah Mills(36:55-45:50)

PhD Student, The University of Michigan

Chris Borick (45:51-53:23)

Director, Institute of Public Opinion, Muhlenberg College

Q&A(53:25-1:16:50)

Part 2: "Transboundary Governance Capacity in the Great Lakes Region: Comparative Findings Across Four Policy Cases"

Carolyn Johns (6:30-6:54)

Associate Professor, Ryerson University

“Introduction”

Debora VanNijnatten (6:55-16:30)

Associate Professor, Wilfrid Laurier University

Tim Heinmiller (16:38-29:36)

Associate Professor, Brock University

Marcia Valiante (29:50-45:49)

Professor of Law, University of Windsor

Debora VanNijnatten (45:53-53:22)

Associate Professor, Wilfrid Laurier University

Dustin Garrick (53:30-1:04:52)

Philomathia Chair of Water Policy, McMaster University

Kathryn Friedman (1:04:58-1:16:57)

Director of Cross-Border and International Research, University of Buffalo

Part 3: Q&A and "Public Outreach in the Basin" (0:00-18:03)

Gail Krantzberg (18:12-34:36)

Director of Centre for Engineering and Public Policy, University of McMaster

Carolyn Johns (34:38-35:30)

Associate Professor, Ryerson University

“Closing remarks”