

Peace & Security: The Voice of Yemeni Youth

Dr. Natalia Kanem
UNFPA Deputy Executive Director, Programme
Wilson Center, Washington DC
6 October 2016

Samar, 16 years old

FPA Yemen/Fahima Al-Fotih

“One night our camp was bombed, my older brother died immediately.

I miss my home even if it was a tent with few furniture”.

Kaid Kareem, 22 years old

IPA Yemen

His Project: Street Game

“The future I want for Yemen is safety and prosperity. I hope there will be special attention given to youth and their projects so that we could fulfill our dreams”.

Akram, 24 years old

“My dream is to have my leg back. My dreams were buried when I lost my leg during an air strike while at home with my family.

I am getting my courage back, I will not give up.”

Photo © UNFPA Yemen

Adel Araimi, 24 years old

“This is the farm
I rent. I want to own this farm one day.

The future I want for Yemen is peace ...”.

Photo © UNFPA Yemen

Lamis Amer, 21 years old

Lamis is a public relations student at the University of Sana'a

Her dream is to build a travel company where young people, especially girls, are engaged in boosting tourism.

Photo © UI

Hope in Times of Crisis

Mona Abdullah, 24 years old

Recent graduate with a business management degree

“My dream is one day to enter parliament and be a decision-maker so that I can highlight the importance of women’s political participation”.

Thank You!

