Misión de Apoyo Contra la Corrupción y la Impunidad en Honduras (MACCIH)

Mission to Support the Fight against Corruption and Impunity in Honduras
The main objectives of the MACCIH include:

- To contribute to the fulfillment by the Honduran State of the international commitments it acquired through the Inter-American Convention against Corruption and the MESICIC, the American Declaration of the Rights and Duties of Man, and the United Nations Convention against Corruption (UNCAC).

- To support, strengthen, and collaborate actively with the institutions of the Honduras State charged with preventing, investigating, and punishing acts of corruption.

- To improve coordination between the different State institutions working in this area.

- To propose reforms of the Honduran justice system, including legislation on strengthening the fight against corruption in and from the private sector.

- To help strengthen the accountability mechanisms from the civil society.
MACCIH

Division for Preventing and Combating Corruption
- International judges and prosecutors oversee the work of and provide technical support to entities of the Honduran justice system
- Prepares a National Plan of Action for implementation of the recommendations made by MESICIC
- Proposes legal and institutional reforms to Honduras’ system to combat corruption, including for the private sector
- Review and analysis of the work being done by the system of justice institutions and formulates recommendations to improve the justice system in Honduras
- Develops together with civil society an observatory and evaluation matrix for the Honduran Criminal Justice System

Division of Criminal Justice System Reform*

Division of Political and Electoral Reform
- Advises the preparation of norms on political and party funding and accompanies in the creation of entities of electoral justice

Division of Public Security
- Follows-up to the evaluation report of the National Public Security System in Honduras
- Develops institutional capacities to protect justice operators, among others