THE ONLY PUBLIC POLICY INSTITUTE IN WASHINGTON DEDICATED TO BRAZIL.

We connect you with leaders of the public, private and civil sectors, fresh ideas, and innovative solutions:

- People. Advisory Council members have access to world-class leaders, staff and issue experts offering unmatched insight to public policy challenges and opportunities.
- Ideas. The Brazil Institute's signature programming, which emphasizes the importance of non-partisan research and dialogue, is a highly respected and credible source of information on a wide range of issues of importance to Brazil and the United States.
- Policy. The Brazil Institute's deep ties in Washington and in Brazil positions the Institute and its members to connect effectively with leading policymakers.

Founded in 2006, the Brazil Institute seeks to foster dialogue on key issues of bilateral concern between Brazil and the United States, while advancing Washington's understanding of the complexities of Brazil as a regional, democratic power and a global player.

The Brazil Institute sponsors one-of-a-kind events, hosting dignitaries and leading policy experts. Recent events featured Vice President of Brazil Hamilton Mourão; Decio Oddone, Director-General of Brazil's National Petroleum Agency; justices of the Brazilian Supreme Court; and Brazil's Minister of Mines and Energy Bento Albuquerque. Through these events and other activities, the Institute's initiatives bring together the public, private, and non-profit spheres on a broad range of issues, including trade, science and technology, rule of law, democracy, and sustainability.

The Brazil Institute is an important resource of the Wilson Center. Established by the U.S. Congress, the Center is the nation's top nonpartisan policy forum for addressing global issues through independent research and open dialogue, to help you make smart decisions related to business and public policy.

The Wilson Center is recognized globally as the #1 regional studies think tank, and the #11 best think tank overall in the world.*

About the Brazil Institute Advisory Council

The Brazil Institute is unique in its dedication to producing actionable ideas that bridge the gap between scholarship and policy on issues of bilateral importance. The Advisory Council includes former ambassadors and other high-level officials, noted scholars recognized for their contribution to bilateral understanding, and leading U.S. and Brazilian enterprises.

Membership in the Advisory Council enables your organization to be an active participant in the ongoing dialogue between Brazil and the United States, and provides access to a marketplace of ideas where we convene the brightest minds to discuss the most pressing challenges and opportunities facing the policy community. Specific benefits of membership include invitations to small, off-the record roundtables and other private events hosted by the Brazil Institute; reserved seating at public Brazil Institute events; briefings from staff and scholars as requested; invitations to Advisory Council annual meetings; and the ability to help shape our agenda and define focus issues for the year.

Contributions from Advisory Council members ensure that we can continue to support Brazilian scholarship and promote key bilateral issues in the United States and Brazil.
