Bibliographic Guide to Literature

The guide lists by theme literature that has come to the attention of ECSP in the past year on population, environmental change, and security issues. ECSP will publish a comprehensive bibliography for the literature in late 2001 under a separate cover. To request this comprehensive bibliography or to suggest a recently-published article or book not listed below, please contact us at 202/691-4182 or at lalaszrl@wwic.si.edu.
