PRINCIPLES AND PROCEDURES GOVERNING IMPLEMENTATION OF THE PRESENT AGREEMENT

Article 10

The Commanders of the Forces on each side, on the one side the Commander-in-Chief of the French Union forces in Indo-China and on the other side the Commander-in-Chief of the People’s Army of Viet-Nam, shall order and enforce the complete cessation of all hostilities in Viet-Nam by all armed forces under their control, including all units and personnel of the ground, naval and air forces.

Taking into account the time effectively required to transmit the cease-fire order down to the lowest echelons of the combatant forces on both sides, the two parties are agreed that the cease-fire shall take effect completely and simultaneously for the different sectors of the country as follows:

It is agreed that Pekin mean time shall be taken as local time.

From such time as the cease-fire becomes effective in Northern Viet-Nam, both parties undertake not to engage in any large-scale offensive action in any part of the Indo-Chinese theatre of operations and not to commit the air forces based on Northern Viet-Nam outside that sector. The two parties also undertake to inform each other of their plans for movement from one regrouping zone to another within twenty-five (25) days of the present Agreement's entry into force.

Article 12

All the operations and movements entailed in the cessation of hostilities and regrouping must proceed in a safe and orderly fashion:

(a) Within a certain number of days after the cease-fire Agreement shall have become effective, the number to be determined on the spot by the Trung Gia Military Commission, each party shall be responsible for removing and neutralizing mines (including river- and sea-mines), booby traps, explosives and any other dangerous substances placed by it. All demolitions, mine fields, wire entanglements and other hazards to the free movement of the personnel of the Joint Commission and its joint groups, known to be present after the withdrawal of the military forces, shall be reported to the Joint Commission by the Commanders of the opposing forces;

(b) From the time of the cease-fire until regrouping is completed on either side of the demarcation line:

2. When one party's forces withdraw by a route (road, rail, waterway, sea route) which passes through the territory of the other party (see Article 24), the latter party's forces must provisionally withdraw three kilometres on each side of such route, but in such a manner as to avoid interfering with the movements of the civil population.

Article 13

From the time of the cease-fire until the completion of the movements from one regrouping zone into the other, civil and military transport, aircraft shall follow air-corridors between the provisional assembly areas assigned to the French Union forces north of the demarcation line on the one hand and the Laotian frontier and the regrouping zone assigned to the French Union forces on the other hand.

(b) Any territory controlled by one party which is transferred to the other party by the regrouping plan shall continue to be administered by the former party until such date as all the troops who are to be transferred have completely left that territory so as to free the zone assigned to the party in question. From then on, such territory shall be regarded as transferred to the other party, who shall assume responsibility for it.

Steps shall be taken to ensure that there is no break in the transfer of responsibilities. For this purpose, adequate notice shall be given by the withdrawing party to the other party, which shall make the necessary arrangements, in particular by sending administrative and police detachments to prepare for the assumption of administrative responsibility. The length of such notice shall be determined by the Trung Gia Military Commission. The transfer shall be effected in successive stages for the various territorial sectors.

For the Commander-in-Chief of the Units of the Khmer Resistance Forces and for the Commander-in-Chief of the Viet-Namese Military Forces

TA-QUANG-BUU
Vice-Minister of National Defence of the Democratic Republic of Viet-Nam

For the Commander-in-Chief of the Khmer National Armed Forces

General NHEEK TOUNTOUL
5. The Conference takes note of the clauses in the agreement on the cessation of hostilities in Viet-Nam to the effect that no military base under the control of a foreign State may be established in the regrouping zones of the two parties, the latter having the obligation to see that the zones allotted to them shall not constitute part of any military alliance and shall not be utilized for the resumption of hostilities or in the service of an aggressive policy. The Conference also takes note of the declarations of the Governments of Cambodia and Laos to the effect that they will not join in any agreement with other States if this agreement includes the obligation to participate in a military alliance not in conformity with the principles of the Charter of the United Nations or, in the case of Laos, with the principles of the agreement on the cessation of hostilities in Laos or, so long as their security is not threatened, the obligation to establish bases on Cambodian or Laotian territory for the military forces of foreign Powers.

6. The Conference recognizes that the essential purpose of the agreement relating to Viet-Nam is to settle military questions with a view to ending hostilities and that the military demarcation line is provisional and should not in any way be interpreted as constituting a political or territorial boundary. The conference expresses its conviction that the execution of the provisions set out in the present declaration and in the agreement on the cessation of hostilities creates the necessary basis for the achievement in the near future of a political settlement in Viet-Nam.

7. The Conference declares that, so far as Viet-Nam is concerned, the settlement of political problems, effected on the basis of respect for the principles of independence, unity and territorial integrity, shall permit the Viet-Namese people to enjoy the fundamental freedoms, guaranteed by democratic institutions established as a result of free general elections by secret ballot. In order to ensure that sufficient progress in the restoration of peace has been made, and that all the necessary conditions obtain for free expression of the national will, general elections shall be held in July 1956, under the supervision of an international commission composed of representatives of the Member States of the International Supervisory Commission, referred to in the agreement on the cessation of hostilities. Consultations will be held on this subject between the competent representative authorities of the two zones from 20 July 1955 onwards.

8. The provisions of the agreement on the cessation of hostilities intended to ensure the protection of individuals and of property must be most strictly applied and must, in particular, allow everyone in Viet-Nam to decide freely in which zone he wishes to live.
9. The competent representative authorities of the Northern and Southern zones of Viet-Nam, as well as the authorities of Laos and Cambodia, must not permit any individual or collective reprisals against persons who have collaborated in any way with one of the parties during the war, or against members of such persons' families.

10. The Conference takes note of the declaration of the Government of the French Republic to the effect that it is ready to withdraw its troops from the territory of Cambodia, Laos and Viet-Nam, at the request of the governments concerned and within periods which shall be fixed by agreement between the parties except in the cases where, by agreement between the two parties, a certain number of French troops shall remain at specified points and for a specified time.

11. The Conference takes note of the declaration of the French Government to the effect that, for the settlement of all the problems connected with the re-establishment and consolidation of peace in Cambodia, Laos and Viet-Nam, the French Government will proceed from the principle of respect for the independence and sovereignty, unity and territorial integrity of Cambodia, Laos and Viet-Nam.

12. In their relations with Cambodia, Laos and Viet-Nam, each member of the Geneva Conference undertakes to respect the sovereignty, the independence, the unity and the territorial integrity of the above-mentioned states, and to refrain from any interference in their internal affairs.

13. The members of the Conference agree to consult one another on any question which may be referred to them by the International Supervisory Commission, in order to study such measures as may prove necessary to ensure that the agreements on the cessation of hostilities in Cambodia, Laos and Viet-Nam are respected.

Minutes, Conversation between Zhou Enlai and Tep Phan (Summary), July 20, 1954

Records No: 206-Y0008

Time: July 20, 1954, 11:00 am to 12:45pm
Place: Prime Minister Zhou Enlai’s residence
[Attendees on the Chinese side: Zhou Enlai, Chen Bingmin (interpreter and recorder)]
[Attendees on the Cambodian side: Tep Phan, [Nheak] Tioulong (Head of Cambodian Military Delegation at the Geneva Conference), Sam Sary (personal delegate to the King of Cambodia), Thao Lenam (Director of General Office of the Foreign Ministry)]

Zhou Enlai: We have almost finished our working documents except for some problems concerning the Cambodian issue. We will work harder on them and hopefully we can reach an agreement at the same time [with the other agreements] at today’s meeting. I have already read two documents concerning Cambodia: one was [issued on] July 16th, the other was [issued on] July 19th. We have already discussed the longer document, but have not yet discussed the shorter one in detail.

Tep Phan: We have not yet read the document of July 19th. We received a new proposal from the Vietnamese side on Sunday evening. Our opinions still have differences regarding political issues and some on military issues as well.

Zhou Enlai: We also have something in common. We can discuss the differences.

Tioulong: It is difficult for us to accept some of the suggestions from the Vietnamese side. We have currently prepared a joint statement for the conference. We also have a unilateral statement to be presented to the conference by the Cambodian delegation. Some points we referred in the unilateral statement can also be included in the joint statement. There are also some differences regarding the military issue. We have not yet exchanged our opinions with the Vietnamese delegation. I wanted to meet with the Vietnamese delegation yesterday but was not able to do so since they were very busy. I hope I can meet with them today. As the Cambodian delegation claimed in the unilateral statement presented to the conference we will not discriminate against Vietnamese elements in Cambodia. They will enjoy the same rights and freedoms as other Cambodian citizens. We definitely will not discriminate against them. We will make no reprisal against either themselves or their families. After they have returned to civilian life, they can be employed by administrative organizations on the same terms as other citizens.

We would also like to talk with you about service personnel. After peace is restored, they can enter military institutes, military academies, and military training schools. Regarding the issue of foreign military personnel, [we believe that this issue] should be distinguished from other military issues. There are French combatant personnel in Cambodia; there are also technicians or experts here, and they are not soldiers.

We accept the provisions of the joint statement claiming that there should be no combatant personnel in Cambodia; however, we should be allowed to keep foreign technicians and experts there. The number of such people will not be too many.

In addition, there is a difference regarding the issue of the introduction of weapons and armaments. We have already talked about that last time. Under the condition that we do not threaten our neighbors, we wish to be allowed to introduce a certain number of weapons and armaments for our own security reasons. Our troops are in the process of being consolidated. This is for the protection of our own country's security.

Now I would like to talk about other differences [between the Vietnamese and us].

First of all, the Vietminh suggested a six-month period for withdrawal. This is too long. According to our side's estimation, it will only take one month to withdraw the Vietminh troops and elements from Cambodia.

Zhou Enlai: The areas are too spread out. There are some difficulties for them to withdraw.

Tioulong: But six months is still too long. There is another suggestion that we cannot accept: the Vietminh suggested that people who were originally non-Cambodian nationals should remain armed until the general elections or even until the realization of the unification of Cambodia.

Tep Phan: It is unreasonable for us to keep these armed elements gathered in local areas. We hope that all people in Cambodia can join the national community life. It does not matter whether they originally grew up in Cambodia or came here later. In addition, according to our constitution, service personnel cannot participate in general elections.

Zhou Enlai: Why is that?

Tep Phan: According to our constitution, people on active service do not have the right to participate in elections or to be elected, either.

Zhou Enlai: Don't you have a system of military service?

Tep Phan: Yes, we do have one. France and many European countries all have this system.

Zhou Enlai: American service personnel can participate in elections.

Tioulong: French police officers can participate in elections. In our country, service personnel cannot participate in elections; monks do not participate in elections, either.

Tep Phan: There are about 60,000 monks in our country. None of them participate in elections.

Zhou Enlai: Why?

Tep Phan: Because they renounce the world, and stand aloof from worldly affairs. They are not interested in politics. The monks I am talking about are people who wear the yellow kasaya robe. In our country everyone is Buddhist.

Tioulong: There is another issue. Some people also ask us to declare that we will not establish military bases in our own territory.
Tep Phan: Our country is an independent country. We need to have our own military bases and airports for defensive reasons.

Zhou Enlai: This is ridiculous. Of course you should not make strict rules like these.

Tep Phan: It is completely for self-defense. Every nation believes in the independence of our country. We should have the right to build our own bases and airports in our own territory.

Zhou Enlai: You surely can build your own airports.

Touloung: In addition, the Vietnamese proposal suggested that we should withdraw our troops two kilometers from each side of the road along which they are to withdraw their troops. We cannot accept that, either, since the width of two kilometers extends to places we live. However, our side agreed to guarantee their security when the Vietnamese withdraw their troops. We are also getting ready to provide them all convenience [on transportation]. We will provide the means of transportation such as trains, trucks and ships on the railway, on the road and on the sea. We are waiting to do so. The above are the differences concerning military issues I would like to point out.

Sam Sary: There is another difference regarding the type and amount of the imported military personnel and weapons to Cambodia. [Although they said to] discuss it separately, it is not clear enough to us. With whom on earth should we discuss this? When should we discuss it? And where should we discuss it? I was wondering if we can present the issue in the unilateral statement of the Cambodian delegation about whether we are allowed to introduce a certain number of weapons and military personnel for the requirements of territorial defense. (Omission- editor)

Touloung: [Mr. Prime Minister,] our opinions on general and practical issues can be quite close to [your] view. Later, we discuss these. However, they are different [when we talk with] the Vietnamese side.

It is also worth studying the way we express ourselves. [For example,] what issues we need to raise in the joint statement for conference, and what issues we can raise in the unilateral statement of our delegation.

It is stipulated in Chapter 3, Article 5 of the draft armistice agreement of Cambodia: after the restoration of peace in Cambodia, the original non-Cambodian elements can be accepted in the Royal Army or local police forces and be demobilized on their own free will. After they are demobilized and become civilians they can be employed by all administrative or other organizations of the Royal Government of Cambodia.

Zhou Enlai: I appreciated it that you raised all these differences in details.

Touloung: We fully intend to make more efforts to help reach the agreement. We hope that we can revise the documents. Also, we believe that it is necessary to let our counterparts understand that the agreement should be reached on a footing of equality.

I would also like to discuss the suggestion that we should gather these elements together and not to disarm them temporarily. However, if they do not enter the military academy, they cannot obtain military ranking. They will be trained at the military academy and should pass their exams. Other service personnel will oppose them if these people obtain military positions without military training and passing exams.

Tep Phan: We would like to have the Prime Minister's opinions on the issues we presented.

Zhou Enlai: I appreciate the differences you presented. We all hope that we can reach an agreement at today's meeting. We do not have much time left, so let's make some efforts together. I deeply regret that agreements on all other issues have already been reached except the issue of Cambodia.

We have to do now is to work to resolve our differences. We believe that we can settle the differences. I have already said many times that the basic principles concerning restoration of peace in Cambodia are independence, no foreign intervention, unification and the integrity of sovereignty. We said on June 16th that we had been insisting on and giving support to such an argument. [We hope that we can] reach a reasonable solution that will not interfere with the sovereignty and territorial integrity of Cambodia and will take care of both internal and external issues.

The Vietnamese People's Volunteer forces [Omission- editor] will definitely withdraw. Regarding the issues of the period of withdrawal and of passing through the withdrawal route, [if you think] the period is too long, [we can ask them to] cut it short. [However,] one month is too short. Sooner or later they will withdraw.

Regarding the security issue of the withdrawal, the issues of the joint commission and institutional supervision and the issue of the means of transportation, I believe that all these issues can be solved since you have already said that you are willing to cooperate.

Regarding internal issues, you should categorize all the soldiers in Cambodia taking their wishes into consideration. Some of them originally came from and do not want to leave. Some of them are from Cochinchina. However, [you] should not discriminate against them. If some of them hope to stay in Cambodia, you surely cannot expel them. However, they should obey the Kingdom's laws.

Touloung: Do you mean those elements who joined the resistance movement? People who enter Cambodia from Cochinchina need passes. We inspect all persons who enter Cambodia from foreign countries. [Only after we check whether they are honest and act dutifully, will we allow them to enter. We have already informed the Vietnamese side about this.]

Tep Phan: They surely can choose to leave or stay in Cambodia of their own free will. However, we have to check whether or not they are honest. Only people who act dutifully can stay in our country. We cannot let those dishonest people, even bandits, stay in our country. We must take the necessary measures since we are worried about our national security. Mr. Prime Minister, can we make decisions for our internal affairs?

Zhou Enlai: You surely have the right to deal with the internal affairs. However, you should not expel them and create tension. The Royal Government should not persecute those who want to stay in Cambodia and are willing to obey the laws. [The Royal Government] should not discriminate against those who were to cooperate with the other side, either.

Tep Phan: We have our own constitution and laws. Our constitution is democratic.
Zhou Enlai: Regarding the armed forces of Cambodia, [you] can first gather them on the spot, and then settle the problems with peaceful and political solutions. Try your best to accept them into military and administrative services. As you just said, you can enter the military academy or have other choices based on their own will. Regarding political issues, [you] should pay attention to three points:
1. Do not persecute people who used to cooperate with the other side.
2. Arrange suitable jobs for them.
3. Since they still have some political organizations, parties and other groups, you should recognize their legal positions based on the constitution. You can meet and negotiate with the leaders of local political organizations.

Tep Phan: We have always gotten in touch with them until now.

Zhou Enlai: It is possible. As long as you open the door, you can reach an agreement. Regarding general problems of military issues, [you should] not introduce new troops and weapons from abroad, establish foreign military bases or join military alliances. The necessary type and amount of weapons that decided for defensive reason of Cambodia is not included in this limitation. The word “self-defense” can be described by two words in French; one is AUTOCÔDEFENSE and the other is DÉFENSE À L’INTERIÉUR DU PAYS (domestic defense). We prefer the second one since the first, “self-defense”, can also be translated as local defense.

Zhou Enlai: I can agree with this.

Tioulong: Mr. Pham Van Dong also used the word self-defense. Regarding the prohibition of the introduction of weapons, we also cannot agree with their explanation. They even included shrapnels. Meanwhile, we need to add “when Cambodia is not invaded by foreign countries or threatened by foreign invasion” to the provision that Cambodia should not establish foreign military bases or join military alliances.

Zhou Enlai: We can consider that.

Tep Phan: Our country is an independent country. Don’t we have the right to sign agreements with foreign countries?

Zhou Enlai: Of course you do if you sign a trade agreement.

Tep Phan: What if we sign a military agreement with China?

Zhou Enlai: China has never signed any agreement of military alliance with any country. Regarding French military personnel who are training the troops of Cambodia.

Tioulong: (Interrupt) France or foreign countries?

Tep Phan: It’s not limited to France. Regarding France, we...

Tioulong: (Interrupt) We have the experience of being ruled by France for several decades. We will not be interested in French “aid” anymore.

Zhou Enlai: You should not be pro-America, either.

Tep Phan: We won’t. Even Mr. Smith said that the United States has no intention of providing aid.

Zhou Enlai: Smith can say that. However, there are still people like [Arthur W.] Bradford and Nixon in the American government.

Sam Sary: We can still establish technical collaboration with countries like India and China.

Tep Phan: However, we are cautious about France.

Tioulong: We are cautious about the cooperation of French experts and technicians, too.

Zhou Enlai: France has somehow changed its attitude recently.

Tep Phan: We still have to reconsider joining the French Union. Last time when we discussed drafting documents with the French delegation, we asked them not to add the point regarding joining the French Union to the documents.

Tioulong: Personally, I have already met with the Prime Minister three times. However, I have never met Mendes-France.

Tep Phan: We are not interested in joining the French Union since we do not want to be ruled by them anymore. France is no better than the Vietnamese.

Zhou Enlai: However, being pro-America is even worse. China has its experience of dealing with the U.S. Our relations have a long history. The United States was a newcomer. America’s attitude was relatively moderate at first. However, it changed after the United States excluded Britain from China after World War Two.

Tep Phan: I understand that.

Zhou Enlai: It is good that you understand it. The time for the meeting is approaching. I hope that you can reach an agreement with the Vietnamese delegation regarding these issues at the meeting in the afternoon. We will also push the Vietnamese side forward so that the meeting can be successful.

Tep Phan: Thank you very much for your help. (Omission—editor)

Zhou Enlai: I am sure that Vietnam does not have such an intention. Chairman Ho Chi Minh firmly clarified the position of Vietnam when I met with him on the Gaingxi border this time. He promised that Vietnam would not invade any country because an invasion is destined to fail. I am telling you the truth since we are all relatives.

Tep Phan: Yes. We need to protect our independence because we want to survive. Our situation is very difficult since our neighbors, such as Thailand and Vietnam, are all big countries. Since our country is a small country, we have no intention of attacking others and only hope that we can survive. In addition, the religion in which we believe does not allow us to attack others.

Zhou Enlai: Your situation is relatively good. The conference will publish a joint statement to guarantee the arms race, and you have the support of the participants of the Colombo Conference. It is much better than the situation of Korea.

Tioulong: I understand this. Cambodia will be a new country after peace is restored. As in China, all the people [of Cambodia] need to make efforts to build up our country. The Chinese and Cambodian people also have a blood relationship. For example, I myself have Chinese blood. My grandfather is Chinese. You can tell that from my name. My [last] name is Tioulong.

Zhou Enlai: Very good.
Toulong: Our peasants cultivate and merchants do business. We all hope to live in peace. It will make our economy develop. We are currently opening up wasteland for development.

Zhou Enlai: We all want peace. The Chinese people are also conducting peaceful development.

Tep Phan: The help we get from you can speed up the achievement of the agreement, and will therefore help us obtain peace and independence. We will need China's help on all different levels in the future.

Zhou Enlai: Yes. We also welcome you to come to visit China in the future if you have the chance.

Tep Phan: We would love to. Thank you.

Zhou Enlai: We will even have diplomatic relations in the future.

Tep Phan: Yes. (Standing at the door and leaving.)

Tep Phan: We appreciate the Prime Minister's help. We hope that Cambodia will become an independent and free country and will peacefully coexist with all its neighbors after the peace is restored.

Zhou Enlai: I also hope that the friendship between the peoples of our two countries will be improved.
