New COVID-19 Cases and Deaths per 1 Million People

Comparison of COVID-19 Vaccination Efforts

- Stage 3: Contact with patients, and care facilities, adults over 70.
- Stage 4: Vaccination non-frontline essential workers, people with underlying medical conditions, adults over 60, all adults from facilities, all healthcare workers, residents of all group-living facilities, adults aged 75 and older.
- Stage 5: Vaccination indigenous communities, adults aged 70 and older.

Currently Approved Vaccines

- Canada: Pfizer, Moderna, Johnson and Johnson, Oxford-AstraZeneca, Sputnik V, Cardíos, SireVac.
- United States: Pfizer, Moderna, Johnson and Johnson, Oxford-AstraZeneca, Sputnik V, Cardíos, SireVac.
- Mexico: Pfizer, Moderna, Oxford-AstraZeneca, Sputnik V, Cardíos, SireVac.

Vaccination Roll Out Strategy

Stage 1: Older adults and staff in long-term care facilities.
Stage 2: Frontline health personnel, and residents of long-term care facilities.
Stage 3: People 55-64 years of age, people with moderate or severe disabilities, and front line essential workers.
Stage 4: People aged 40-54 years of age, people with critical comorbidities, and front line essential workers.
Stage 5: People aged 18-39 years of age, people with critical comorbidities, and front line essential workers in the United States.